

Nadira Al-Araj

Nadira Al-Araj is civil society independent researcher. She is an elected treasurer on the Executive Committee for Asia Pacific School of Internet Governance. Currently, is on the advisory council of the PIR.

She was the vice chair for ISOC Palestine and was elected to the first ISOC Chapters Advisory Council Steering Committee. An active member in ICANN Middle East Strategy Working group and APRALO, were she was one of the 5 regional At-Large delegates to ICANN nominating committee for 2 terms. She worked with Diplo Foundation on the IGMENA.org project for the Internet Governance Capacity Building.

Nadira hold two M.Sc. degrees, one in Computer Science and the other in Information Resources Management from Syracuse University plus 23 years of lecturing experience at Bethlehem University.